Subject: Introducing Ultimax® ATV HQ Belts by Timken

Timken Belts is proud to announce a new high quality, competitively priced replacement line of drive belts for ATVs, UTVs and Side-by-Sides. Ultimax®ATV HQ belts feature specially formulated compounds and tough aramid cord to create a durable and dependable belt. Comprised of 28 part numbers, UltimaxATV HQ belts fit the most popular machines.

The Timken Company is a major supplier of drive belts to OE manufacturers. No other aftermarket belt company has this expertise. Each UltimaxATV HQ belt has been engineered for use on specific applications to provide proper fit and reliability. Find the correct belt for your machine using the handy "belt finder" tool at: <http://www.ultimaxbelts.com/belt-finder>.

When will the new UltimaxATV HQ belts be available?

- Belts are now in inventory.

Where are UltimaxATV HQ belts made?

- All Ultimax belts are proudly made in the USA in Springfield, Missouri.

What machines are covered?

- UltimaxATV HQ belts are engineered for use on specific applications. An Ultimax interchange file is available. Please contact belts@timken.com, download the file from our website or use the belt finder tool at www.ultimaxbelts.com. For optimum performance, please follow the recommendations provided.

Is there a warranty on UltimaxATV HQ belts?

- Yes. UltimaxATV HQ belts are backed by a one year warranty.

What is the price?

- Prices vary by part number. For a price file, please contact your account manager or Belt Customer Service at 866-773-2926.

Will the UltimaxATV belts still be available?

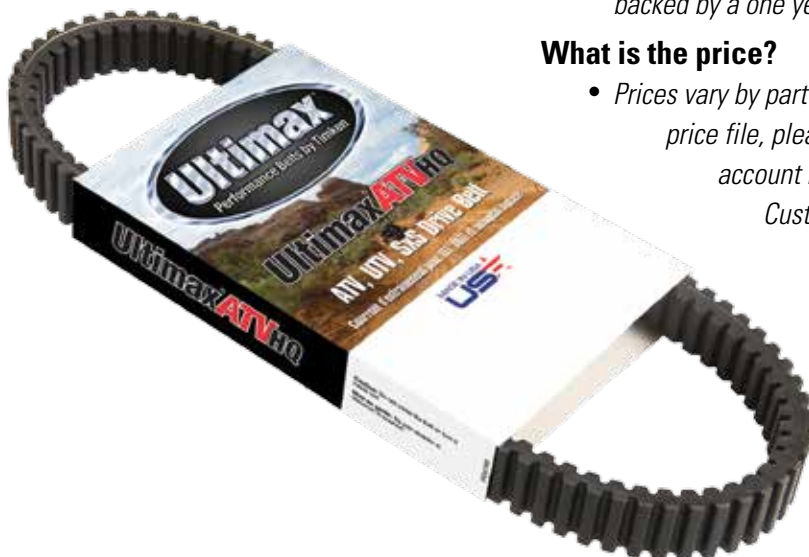

- Yes. UltimaxATV (UA) is a premium performance belt and is still available. UA belts are required for the most demanding applications. In many applications, users may choose the competitively priced HQ belt (one year warranty) or the superior performing UA belt (2 year warranty). UA part numbers remain the same. UltimaxATV HQ belts have the same number but with a UHQ prefix.

Should I use UA or HQ?

- HQ - OE replacement belt, competitively priced, one year warranty
- UA – premium performance belt for the enthusiast, two year warranty

What other Ultimax belts are available?

- The Ultimax family includes UltiMAX, Ultimax PRO and Ultimax XS snowmobile drive belts; UltimaxATV and UltimaxATV HQ drive belts for ATVs, UTVs and SxSs; and Ultimax MD (Multi-Duty) belts for use on go-karts, golf carts, junior dragsters, and a variety of applications.
